Kanopy is an on-demand video streaming service available to COD faculty and students. The collection includes a variety of feature films, indie titles, and documentaries. Begin browsing right away, or create an account to create a Watchlist or Playlist to share with students.

Get started right away before creating an account! Visit cod.kanopystreaming.com Search for something specific, or browse titles by subject.

Ready to register? Go to cod.kanopystreaming.com and click Sign up. Please note that Kanopy does not ask you to confirm your password, so type it in carefully.

Search by subject, filmmaker, company, and more. Explore related content and view transcripts directly in your browser.

Look for the confirmation e-mail in your inbox and click the Verify My Email button in the email to activate your account. Log In to start adding to your Watchlist.
How to use the Kanopy Viewer

- Go full screen
- Closed Captioning